WALTER ABEL WILL NARRATE EPIC CHARGE

Screen star Walter Abel and military expert George Fielding Eliot will narrate the centennial dramatization of Pickett's Charge on July 3 at 3 p.m., the exact time the fateful Confederate assault on the Union lines.

Abel's narration will portray the re-enactment as 600 Confederate troops emerge from Seminary Hill to begin the mile-long charge on the historic stonewall and cove of trees, now called the high water mark of the Confederacy.

A hundred years ago Union troops gasped as almost 15,000 Confederates, marching as on parade, battle flags flying, in ranks a mile wide, strode across the open fields, never faltering as the Union artillery cut gaping holes in the line. The troops stepped over their dead and wounded, closed ranks and marched into the withering, point-blank fire of Union infantrymen.

UNBELIEVABLE CARNAGE

Despite the unbelievable carnage, 150 men led by Brig. Gen. Lewis Armistead leaped the wall nearly a mile from their base. Defiantly shouting the Rebel yell, the valiant 150 fought hand to hand against an overwhelming force of men in blue. Within 20 minutes all was lost and the gray-clad band fell to death or capture.

Tried beyond endurance, Confederates short of the wall faded back or waved handkerchiefs in surrender. Pickett's Charge, like that of the Light Brigade "into the valley of death," became an

Stamp Orders Are Flooding Post Office

Advance orders for more than 100,000 first day cancellations of the Gettysburg commemorative stamp have been received at the Gettysburg post office and hundreds more are arriving daily, according to Stanley J. Hodziewicz, chief of the Philatelic Staff of the U. S. Post Office Department, Washington. The stamp will go on sale July 1 at the local post office and across the nation the following day.

Hodziewicz said that 34 local employees have been added to the post office staff to handle the special orders for first-day covers. He said that the advance orders generally are coming from collectors who have sent self-addressed envelopes to which the canceled stamps will be affixed and mailed. Uncanceled stamps also are available at the post office.

The stamp detail at the local post office is under the direction of Hodziewicz, who is assisted by Leonard Pulinski, also of the Washington department. The five-cent Battle of Gettysburg stamp is the third in a series of five stamps marking the centennial of the Civil War.

Kennedy Gazes Into Red World Over Berlin Wall

By RICHARD O'REGAN
BERLIN (AP)—With the cheers of a million West Berliners ringing in his ears, President Kennedy strode up to the Red wall of Berlin today and gazed into the Communist world.

A crowd of several hundred East Berliners, standing behind Communist police who held Tommyguns, waved handkerchiefs at him.

West Berliners filled the air with confetti and cheers.

The President arrived at the Brandenburg Gate—the symbol of the division of Berlin between East and West—at 11:45 a.m.

GET 'COPTER TO GUIDE TRAFFIC

The Atlantic Refining Company announced today that one of its helicopters in this area will be loaned to the Pennsylvania State Police for expediting the flow of automobile traffic here next week during the 100th anniversary observance of the Battle of Gettysburg.

An Atlantic spokesman said that the aircraft would take Trooper Leonard J. Chehutski aloft, assigned to the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission, Harrisburg, to direct auto traffic through radio contact with State Police ground units.

The helicopter performed a similar service during the annual governors' conference at Hershey last year. It has been used for traffic reports from the air in Philadelphia and suburbs. The service is known as the Atlantic "Go Patrol."

IKE SUGGESTS SCHOOLS EYE MORAL SPHERE

General Dwight D. Eisenhower Tuesday afternoon told approximately 150 ministers and lay members of the Carlisle Presbyterian meeting in the Presbyterian Church that "no Supreme Court in the world could say it's illegal" to raise our children in an atmosphere which recognizes the existence of God.

"Our form of government is a political expression of some religious faith," he declared, "and I believe that we can find a textbook for bringing a moral thought into our schools."

The former president endorsed the recent decision of the Supreme Court concerning the separation of church and state but asked: "Is it not possible to give basic religious education or feeling without bringing religion directly into the curriculum?" He recalled the preamble to the Constitution in which our forebears called upon "Nature's God" to confirm their decisions and devised a political system based on the premise that "men are endowed in equal rights by the Creator."

URGES GROUP

Speaking without text, Eisenhower urged the group to suggest to school authorities the addition of a textbook to provide "a moral thought." He declared, "There is no need to raise our

2 Vignette Cast Changes Announced

Two cast changes have been announced by Mrs. Roy W. Gifford, producer and script writer of "Vignettes of History" which will be presented continuously July 1-4 from 9 a.m. until noon as a feature of the centennial program.

John Korver, librarian of Bermsburg Springs High School, will replace Robert Trostle as General Barlow in the vignette "A Life Saved by a Gentleman," which re-enacts a scene in which Union Gen. Francis Barlow, left for dead by his fleeing troops, was saved through the generosity of Confederate General John B. Gordon, with whom he later became fast friends.

In "A Valiant General . . . A Noble Man," Darryl Tuckey will play the role of Gen. Robert E. Lee instead of LeRoy LeVan. Dealing with Pickett's Charge, the vignette will be presented in Pitzer's Woods on W. Confederate Ave., a little north of the woods that leads to the Eisenhower farm.

REDS TAKE PIX

The screaming, cheering, flag-waving, confetti-tossing welcome exceeded the mammoth reception West German crowds gave Kennedy earlier this week.

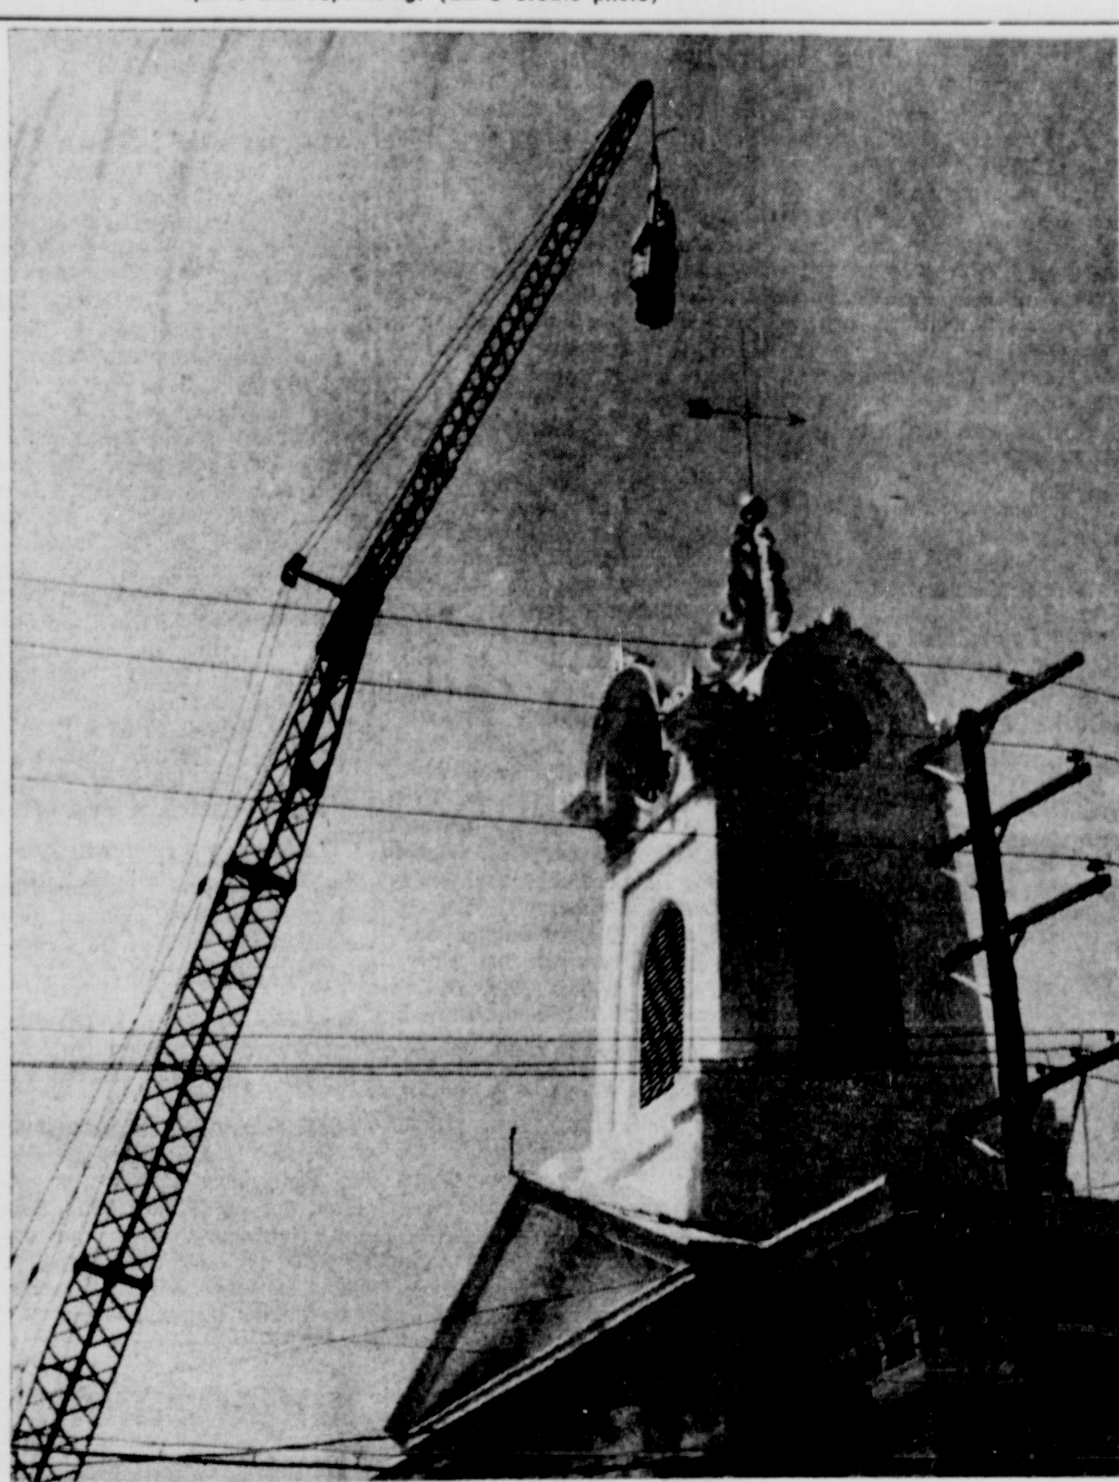

The President looked across into East Berlin from an 18-foot observation platform about 15 feet from the wall. West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer stood at his side as a British officer showed the President a chart of the principal points in East Berlin.

RED CROSS TO STAFF 1ST AID STATIONS HERE

Members of the board of directors of the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross at their June meeting Tuesday evening reviewed plans for the staffing of four first aid stations by Red Cross aides during the battle centennial here.

Chairman C. P. Keefer, who presided said the Red Cross will set up and staff first aid stations at the National Park Visitors Center, the Bryan house and the Pennsylvania monument on four days and on July 1 will operate a first aid station at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial where the main events for that day will take place.

Mrs. Zora Stambaugh, captain of the Red Cross Nurses' Aide Corps, is in charge of assigning aides to the stations for service from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

SWIM CLASS "HEAVY"

Executive Director William McCrorie told the board the enrollment for the Red Cross swim classes to be conducted next month is "very heavy" but that the only local pool currently available is the Battlefield pool.

Keefer Receives Chrostwaite Award

Roger J. Keefer, Littlestown insurance man and for the last 26 years the secretary for Littlestown borough, was in Philadelphia Tuesday evening to receive the Chrostwaite award for meritorious service.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Thomas F. Chrostwaite, widow of the Hanover attorney in whose memory the award is given annually by the Pennsylvania Association of Boroughs. The state association was holding its annual convention at the Sheraton Hotel there.

While Mr. Keefer has been borough secretary for more than 26 years, his total period of service extends through more than 27 years. He had served for more than a year as assistant secretary before being advanced to his present post. Mrs. Keefer accompanied her husband to Philadelphia and witnessed the plaque presentation.

Centennial To Get $35,000

HARRISBURG (AP) — A heavily debated House bill appropriating $28,000 for the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg is going through the Senate with an extra $7,000 attached.

The bill, approved in the House Monday after 45 minutes of bitter debate, was amended to $35,000 and reported to the floor of the Senate by the Senate Appropriations Committee.

The money is to be added to an original $100,000 appropriation granted earlier this year to the Gettysburg Centennial Commission.

Debate in the House centered on the propriety of increasing the allocation.

YOUTHS HIKE 100 MILES TO JOIN PROGRAM

Four Confederates and one Union soldier, all students at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., are the first "troops" to arrive for the re-enactment of Early's capture of Gettysburg Thursday evening.

The five walked slightly over 100 miles, following the route of a Confederate unit from Poolesville, Md., to Gettysburg. The distance by today's road is 65 miles. But following the sometimes round-about route of the Confederates, the youths found that they walked 100 miles to reach Gettysburg.

Aged 15 to 17 the youths, encamped in a "CSA" tent across the road from Lee's Headquarters, arrived here agreed that their parents' strictures against their plans to make the trip by horse and wagon had been correct. The parents had been afraid that a horse and buggy might be struck by autos as it traveled here. The youths, having watched (Continued On Page 6)

Kitchen Committee To Meet Tonight

The Auxiliary of the Gettysburg Fire Department will meet this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Recreation Field to clean the kitchen and dining hall and make other preparations for service during the festival.

Mrs. William Gallagher, president, asked those who may wish to assist with the kitchen work, who are not members of the auxiliary, to also be present tonight. She also asked persons who might wish to donate cakes, etc., to notify her or any member of the auxiliary or after Monday call the Rec Park and the food items will be called for.

'OLD GUARD' TO PERFORM TWICE IN CENTENNIAL

"The Old Guard"—the 1st Battle Group, 3rd Infantry of Fort Myer, Va., whose Fife and Drum Corps appearance here Memorial Day, 1962, in colonial costume won the admiration of all who saw and heard them—will present two performances of "The Story of the Stars and Stripes" here during the battle anniversary.

First presentation of the military pageant depicting the evolution of America's flag from the days of the 13 original states to the present day will be given next Tuesday, July 2, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Peace Light Memorial.

The second presentation will be at the Peace Light at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning, July 3.

TO DISPLAY FLAGS

In connection with the military pageant members of the 1st Battle Group in ceremonial uniforms will display the flags of the various states and territories, as well as the national flags at various times.

Presented as part of the state's Battle of Gettysburg Centennial Commission's official program, the two presentations of the pageant will display here a colorful program given previously at Washington by the unit which is the Army's official ceremonial unit in the Nation's Capital.

The "Old Guard" is the U.S. Army's oldest infantry regiment, predating the Constitution. It is responsible for ceremonial and security missions in the nation's capital, including providing the guard for the Tomb of the Unknowns, conducting military funerals in Arlington National Cemetery and various ceremonial functions for the President of the United States and other American and foreign government officials.

CHRIST CHURCH HOSTESSES TO SERVE GUESTS

Visitors to Christ Lutheran Church, Gettysburg, during the three-day centennial observance will receive a copy of a special centennial prayer written by Dr. Donald R. Heiges, president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, and will be served light refreshments in the parish house by hostesses of the congregation.

Dr. Heiges' prayer was inspired by Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and has been extended to pastors of local churches for possible distribution to visitors to all churches.

CENTENNIAL PRAYER

"O God, by whose hand is shaped the destiny of men and of peoples, we praise Thee that our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. We give Thee thanks for all brave men who on this battlefield and on all battlefields have given their lives that our nation so conceived might live.

"In penitence we lament and confess that the cause of liberty and equality so nobly defended remains an unfinished task. For this task we beseech Thee to purge, chasten and direct us that this nation and all nations shall have a new birth of freedom, (Continued On Page 7)

Angry Swedes May Compel Khrushchev To Cancel Visit Over Stormy Spy Scandal

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) —

Angry reaction to what officials called the worst spy scandal in Swedish history may force Soviet Premier Khrushchev to cancel his visit to this traditionally neutral nation a second time.

The government disclosed Tuesday the arrest of a Swedish air force colonel charged with spying for the Soviet Union for the past 15 years. For five of those years he was Swedish air attaché in Washington. It also ordered the expulsion of his two alleged contacts, the first secretary of the Soviet Embassy and the Soviet military attaché.

SOLD MILITARY DATA

Col. Stig Erik Wennerstrom, decorated by both the United States and France, was arrested Friday. Police said he admitted selling military secrets of Sweden and other countries to the Kremlin.

Although the other countries were not identified, they presumably included the United States, which honored Wennerstrom with its Legion of Merit.

A special communique suggested more disclosures would be forthcoming. They could further embarrass Khrushchev and force him to cancel his Scandinavian visit, scheduled for next spring. Two years ago stormy political opposition made Khrushchev postpone a trip to Sweden.

NATO PROBE

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization was reported investigating whether Wennerstrom supplied the Russians with NATO secrets.

Informed sources in Stockholm said NATO staffs in Paris and Washington had cancelled all leaves to expedite the inquiry.

In Washington, the State Department said it received advance notice from the Swedish government of Wennerstrom's arrest. (Continued On Page 6)

40-VOICE CHOIR SINGS SUNDAY FOR CHURCH

A 40-voice choir, a sermon based upon the theme "This Nation Under God" and a presentation of the story of John Burns will comprise the Methodist Church service Sunday. The entire theme of the morning service will be presented in observance of the centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg.

The normal 20-voice Methodist choir, under the direction of George P. Heffran, has been augmented by 20 additional voices from neighboring churches and other groups for a special presentation of the story of John Burns. The choir will sing the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" arrangement, made famous by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, will have accompanying instrumentation provided by 10 musicians from the Gettysburg area.

TELL BURNS STORY

"We are extremely appreciative of the help given us by all of the participants in making it possible for us to do this inspirational and meaningful work," Heffran said. "It should prove a most gratifying and inspirational experience for the congregation."

The theme, "This Nation Under God," upon which the pastor, Rev. Donald H. Treese, will base his sermon, "is the theme upon which the ministry throughout the Gettysburg area will preach," Heffran added.

William Pensyl will tell the story of John Burns, Civil War hero and member of the local church during the war. The story will be told as written by the late Margaret McMillan.

35 VETERANS TOUR 'FIELD

Thirty-five patients from the Veterans Hospital on Leech Farm Rd., Pittsburgh, took part Tuesday evening and today in a tour of Gettysburg arranged by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its auxiliary.

The 35 patients, accompanied by a physician, a nurse, a recreation director, four nursing assistants, 12 volunteer aides and the hospital photographer, arrived here Tuesday afternoon by bus.

Arrangements for the bus trip were made by the Kieth Homes Post and Auxiliary, VFW, Coraopolis. In general charge of the trip are Mrs. Wilma Johe, Pittsburgh, VFW Auxiliary Department hospital chairman, and her cochairman, Mrs. Ruth A. Riefer, of Pittsburgh.

The group were guests of the Chambersburg VFW for lunch Tuesday, then were given dinner by the local VFW at its home on E. Middle St. After the dinner the local VFW Auxiliary entertained the patients at a party in the VFW home.

Tuesday night the group slept at Gettysburg College. This morning after breakfast at the VFW, F. Harmon Furney guided the group over the battlefield. After lunch at the VFW today, the group visited the Gettysburg Civil War Museum, and then returned to Pittsburgh, stopping for dinner at the VFW post home in Irwin.

This year marks the fourth in which a Gettysburg tour was conducted for the Veterans' Hospital patients. Those chosen are men who have no relatives. For many, the bus tours arranged by the state VFW auxiliary, three a year, are the only times they are out of the hospital.

CHICKEN HOUSE BURNS

A chicken house on the property of Melvin Sterner, Green Springs, was destroyed by fire Monday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. The New Oxford Fire Co. responded to the alarm and prevented the spread of flames.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual Huntington Friends' Meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the meeting house near York Springs.

Weather

Five-day forecasts for June 27 through July 1:

Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, southeastern New York — Temperatures are expected to average 2 to 6 degrees above normal with a cooling period during the weekend. Precipitation may total two-tenths of an inch or less, occurring as scattered showers about Sunday.

Western Pennsylvania — Temperatures will average about 5 degrees above normal. Not so warm Friday and Saturday but turning warm again the first of the week. Precipitation will be light with showers most probably late Saturday or Sunday.

Western New York — Temperatures will average 5 degrees above normal. Near normal from Thursday through Saturday, then warmer Sunday and Monday. Precipitation will be light with showers most probable on Sunday.

Titan 2 Is Ready For War But Not For Peacetime Job With Gemini Capsule

NORTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — The silo-launched, super-payload Titan 2 is ready for war—but not for its prime peacetime job: lofting the two-man Gemini capsule into space.

The Air Force and the civilian space agency have begun intensive research to reduce bone-rattling vibrations set up during the burning of Titan 2's 430,000-pound thrust first-stage engine. They say they are close to solving the problem.

These longitudinal vibrations are enough to bounce an astronaut up and down so hard he would have difficulty operating his controls for several critical seconds during launch. They do not interfere with Titan 2's effectiveness as a missile.

HUMANS TO DEDICATE

Its nuclear payload is designed to withstand much worse jolting—even the nearby explosion of an antimissile rocket would not put the giant warhead out of action. Human payloads, however, are more delicate. No one is sure just how much jouncing an astronaut can take, but there is general agreement that the one-half "G" stress would at least impair the effectiveness of the two men in a Gemini capsule.

The "G" stands for gravity. An extra half gravity load means the astronauts would be bouncing up and down just as if they were driving on an extremely bumpy road at high speed.

AT CRITICAL TIMES

The worst of it is, the bouncing comes at a critical times—when the astronauts must make decisions and push buttons to eject themselves in case the missile should blow up on the pad.

In Atlas-boosted Mercury capsules, malfunction detection is automatic. In the Titan-Gemini system, however, plans call for the final decision to rest with the pilots.

Brig. Gen. John L. McCoy, Titan boss in the ballistic systems division here, acknowledges the vibration problem but says he is confident it will be whipped.

COST HIGH TOO

"The Gemini calendar calls for manned launchings in late 1964 or 1965," General McCoy said in an interview. "The Air Force and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration have common objectives in man-rating the Titan 2. I am confident we will have the Titan 2 ready in time to meet NASA's schedule."

McCoy also disclosed for the first time that Titan 2, although capable of carrying a bigger weapon farther than Titan 1, costs much less.

In a wide-ranging interview based on Titan 2's recent achievement of operational status, McCoy placed the cost of the 54 Titan 1's now operational at $200 million for each of six squadrons.

SOLONS GREET LAUREL QUEEN

HARRISBURG (AP)—State senators always seem to have an eye for beauty—even on the busiest of days.

They proved that Tuesday with a warm welcome for Pennsylvania's vivacious new Laurel Queen, Susan Lee of Sonestown.

The 18-year-old miss, dressed in a gay white dress with a laurel bouquet in her hand, received a standing ovation as she was introduced in the chamber.

Then, standing at the rostrum usually occupied by the lieutenant governor, she thanked the senators for their applause and invited them all to next year's Laurel Festival.

Her father, Rep. Kenneth B.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

GAIN FOR THE LEGLINE. A lovely writes: My legs are spindly, although I am not otherwise thin. Maybe a bit too heavy.

Please tell me what the ideal leg measurements are and how to get them.

For all my lovelies with the spindly problem, this advice: You can be lightweight, middleweight or heavyweight and still be plagued by thin legs. So diet obviously is not the answer. Dieting would not go amiss, however, if your general appearance could benefit from a gain or loss in pounds.

Be that as it may, the only sure means to a legline build-up is spot-increasing exercise. Such workouts develop strong muscles which, in turn, mold and hold flesh in curvier contours. An excellent routine follows:

Stand with feet six inches apart, toes pointing ahead and hands on hips. Rise onto balls of feet and twist torso to right; by bending knees, very slowly sink toward floor as far as possible and then slowly come erect. Relax and repeat, turning torso to left. Alternating, perform 20 times.

As for ideal leg measurements, they are based on one's height. The chart below (in inches) shows the breakdown:

Height	Thigh	Calf	Ankle
5-5 1/2	38 1/2	12 1/4	7 1/2
5-6	39	13	8
5-6 1/2	39 1/2	13 1/2	8 1/2

Note: If your frame is small, subtract one inch from the charted measurements; if large, add inch. Be accurate; cheating on the tape measure gets you nowhere.

CURVE FOR THE LEGLINE

If your loveliness problem is thin, shapeless legs, send for my leaflet, MORE CURVE FOR THE LEGLINE. It shows how to build up contours with spot-increasing exercise. The leaflet also includes your ideal leg measurements, and tips on a graceful stance as well as flattering footwear. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

COMPOUNDING FELONY
CANISTEO, N.Y. (AP) — Police Chief Lido Jamison Jr. said he was investigating a jewelry theft at a store here when someone let air out of the front tires on his patrol car.

Jamison said he believed it was the jewelry thief.

Lee, R-Sullivan, also was introduced. Miss Lee was crowned Laurel Queen at Wellsboro last Saturday night by U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott.

People In The News

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Mitchum, 22, son of actor Robert Mitchum, is engaged to actress Karen Conrad, 21.

Young Mitchum, also an actor, told a newsman in Los Angeles: "We probably won't get married until later in the year. I may have to go to Spain at the end of July to make a picture and be there for 10 weeks." He said Miss Conrad expects to start work in a movie next month.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., says Congress should cut federal spending and move toward a balanced budget.

A reduction in revenue while spending is being increased would only perpetuate deficit spending, he told the American Apparel Manufacturers Association convention at Atlanta Monday.

McClellan said a planned deficit, such as proposed by the Kennedy administration, is no better than an unplanned one.

John Steinbeck, Pulitzer and Nobel prize-winning author, has undergone eye surgery that his doctors described as minor.

Officials at Southampton (N.Y.) Hospital said his condition was good after the operation Monday. Steinbeck lives at Sag Harbor, a Long Island town near Southampton.

Adm. Jerauld Wright arrived at Taipei, Formosa, Tuesday to take over as U.S. ambassador to Nationalist China.

Wright succeeds Adm. Alan G. Kirk, who left Formosa last January for medical treatment and subsequently resigned because of ill health.

Joanquin Martinez Saenz, former president of the Cuban National Bank and an internationally known financial expert has reached Madrid after being freed from a Castro prison in Cuba.

Accused of mishandling in public office, he had been sentenced to a long prison term in 1959. Martinez Saenz refused to flee with other government officials when the Batista government collapsed. He was arrested several months later and Castro police said they found a huge sum of American currency in his safe deposit box.

Civil War Shells Found In Library

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP)—Two Civil War shells lay among the books for years, fused and ready. Civil War buff Manuel Sempeles discovered a 5-inch navy shell in the basement of Handley Library and a smaller shell upstairs in a storage room.

Librarian David Roland remembered how the shells had been tossed around during a recent cleaning and a changeover. Two Ft. Belvoir Army specialists came Tuesday, defused the shells and carted them off.

Roland made a quick check of the library—no more shells; only books.

Man O'War was 16.2 hands high and weighed as much as 1,370 pounds.

NAME HEADS OF NONCOM CLUB

The following officers were elected by the Noncommissioned Officers' Club of the local Howitzer battery of the National Guard following the drill Monday evening at the armory on W. Confederate Ave.

President, Sgt. Robert Woodson; vice president, Sgt. David Nett; secretary-treasurer, Cpl. Ronald Feaser; social director, Sgt. Donald McCauslin.

Gary Beamer, Aspers R. 1, enlisted for a three-year term. He will serve six months on active duty with the Army and 2 1/2 years with the guard. A former student at Biglerville High School, he is now employed by Tuckey's Cities Service, Benderville.

During the instruction period, Sgt. Carpenter supervised cannon instruction on sighting and test firing. Specialist 4th Class Lanya conducted a class on fire direction control. Specialist 4th Class Carry conducted a survey section class on triangulation methods. Sergeant Nett supervised a class on installation and maintenance of wire and Sgt. McDannell conducted exercises on radio operation and phraseology.

It was announced that on Thursday evening the local battery will inspect weapons and ammunition prior to the re-enactment of Early's capture of Gettysburg. There will be no drill next Monday because of the multiple drill Tuesday, July 2.

WELLSVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — Mayor Robert Gardner and his police chief cleaned out the police files on unpaid parking tickets Tuesday. They found 76 unpaid tickets.

One ticket, two years old, belonged to the mayor. He paid a $2 fine.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Gettysburg Will Be State Capital

During Reunion: Historic Gettysburg will become the seat of Pennsylvania's state government for the first time in the history of the Commonwealth during the seventy-fifth anniversary of the battle, June 29 to July 6. For a five-day interval, while President Roosevelt and governors of other states are guests of the state at a national reunion of war veterans of the Blue and the Gray, Governor Earle will move his staff to temporary headquarters here. One of the buildings on the Gettysburg college campus will become the executive citadel of the state, as the picturesque seat of Adams County add this civic honor to the distinction of her National cemetery. Paul L. Roy, executive secretary of the commission, established by the last Legislature to direct the anniversary observance, and executives of the Governor's office completed arrangements for the transfer of government offices Tuesday. Three other cities of the States have gone down in Pennsylvania's annals as the center of government at one time or another — Philadelphia, capital of Colonial times; Lancaster, for a thirteen year interval from 1790, and the present capital, Harrisburg.

No Re-enactment Of Battle

Scenes: Veterans who fought in the Battle of Gettysburg and visitors who flock to the battlefield where the northern and southern armies clashed will see no re-enactment of battles during the 75th anniversary June 29 to July 6. Senator John S. Rice, chairman of the commission in charge of observance, emphasized today that no part of any battle or engagement would be staged by Regular Army or National Guard troops stationed here for the last reunion of the Blue and Gray. Paul L. Roy, executive secretary, said today that the final reunion observance will be recorded for posterity. Four records will be made — by word, sound, "still" cameras and motion pictures. They will be turned over to the federal and state governments which are collaborating in the $1,261,000 anniversary. More than 100 writers and photographers are expected, including White House correspondents accompanying the President. Roy was informed today that the veterans and visitors would have the opportunity during the celebration to hear an opera composed especially for the event by Arthur Robinson of Los Angeles. It is called "Gettysburg." It will be broadcast over a coast-to-coast hookup.

C. J. Tyson Dies: Chester J. Tyson, 62, Idaville, son of the late Charles J. and Maria E. Tyson, died at the Warner hospital at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon as the result of complications. He had submitted to a major operation. He was a fruit grower all his life, for the last 15 years having operated an orchard near Gardner. For more than 25 years he was a member of the board of trustees of the Pennsylvania State College. He was a member of several honorary fraternities and was a lifelong member of the Society of Friends. He is survived by his widow, Bertha Haxhurst Tyson and the following sons and daughters: Donald C., Chester, Jr., Ralph W., Alan H., and Norman E., all at home; Robert W., Washington, D. C.; Elizabeth (Tilton) and R. Stanley, Philadelphia; Margaret J. of Baltimore; Frederick C. and E. Philip, Oakland, Cal., and Paul, Lockport, N. Y. He is also survived by two brothers, Edwin C., Flora Dale and William C., Lockport, N. Y.

Today's Talk

LIFE THROUGH LAW

All things are governed through law. Even to the minutest creation of nature and all through the life of nature, and then into animal and human life.

The laws of nature are fixed. Their fundamentals never vary. There is nothing more inspiring than to look into the heavens upon a bright night and meditate upon the stars and the entire solar system. Man-made laws look puny beside those greater laws of the Universe.

A man's self-respect increases the more as he respects the laws of nature, as well as those made by man for his own protection and the protection of the many. "Without law no man could call his own life safe."

In many of our cities the pedestrian is ordered by law to make no crossing until the green light is flashed. No "jay-walking" allowed! I am sure that many a life has been saved from tragedy by adhering to this ruling. Laws are not made for the protection of the few, who might not need any laws at all, but for the many who often need protection from the few.

Where there is universal respect for law and order, there is the freest liberty of thought and action. All just laws are founded upon the premise of justice to the unjust, but only through their greatest number. Some laws are strict enforcement are people aroused to their repeal. But while any law exists it is our duty and privilege to obey it!

Our bodies are governed by laws. When they are violated, the body suffers. No respecter of persons is Nature. All are treated alike. That person, or nation, however, that is governed the least, is always the happiest. There is an inherent law that every one of us may well respect — think of the other fellow first.

SUCCESS

This is success, so to have lived your years
That all who've known you shall have found you true,
Have seen in some way what is best in you

And found in you some comfort for their tears,
A smile which passed but often reappears.

Or heard a word which cheered them through and through,
And think of you as one who tried to do

Some friendly service in a time of fears,
Great souls in humble bodies often dwell.

The noble spirits walk in common ways,
In thoughtfulness for others they excel.

A gentle friendship marks their round of days,
Longest remembered at the journey's end,
Is he who reaped his glory as a friend.

HITS BUT LOSE TO PHILLIES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pittsburgh did most of the hitting, but Philadelphia won the game.

The Phillies beat Pittsburgh 5-4 Tuesday night in 10 innings with the winning blow coming on a lead-off home run by Don Demeter in the tenth.

The Pirates belted Philadelphia pitching for 18 hits, including five extra-base hits, but had trouble getting runners home. They left 16 men stranded.

Demeter's homer, his 13th, came off loser Harvey Haddix, the sixth Pirate hurler.

RALLY IN 9TH

A two-run rally by Pittsburgh in the bottom of the ninth sent the game into extra innings.

With two away, Jerry Lynch and Smokey Burgess singled and Don Clendenon walked. Bill Virdon knocked a single to center, scoring a pair of runs.

Two Philadelphia runs scored in the third inning on a single by Tony Taylor, a stolen base, a double by Tony Gonzalez, a passed ball and an infield out by Demeter.

They pushed over two more runs in the next inning on singles by Art Mahaffey and John Callison, a walk and an error by Bob Bailey.

MEET AGAIN TONIGHT

Dick Schofield homered for Pittsburgh in the first inning. It was his second homer.

John Klippstein picked up the victory, his third in six decisions. The two clubs meet tonight in the second game of the three-game series with Pittsburgh's Bob Friend (9-5) starting against Cal McLish (5-4).

Saddle Blanket Used By Lincoln Displayed: An exhibit that was attracting considerable attention was being shown today in a Baltimore street window. It is an old saddle blanket which the late Charles W. Grist offered for use on the horse which Abraham Lincoln rode to the National cemetery on the day of the dedication of that burying ground.

The offer was accepted and the blanket was later returned to Grist, father of Charles Grist, York Springs, who supplied the exhibit.

Braves Hand Colts 10th Straight Loss; Cards Win Over Giants To Take Lead

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Pity Houston's wandering Colts. They can't find home away from home.

Home plate again was out of bounds for the runless wonders Tuesday night as they were zeroed, again, this time at Milwaukee 4-0 by Tony Cloninger.

In suffering their 10th successive loss and 14th in 15 games on their current road trip, the Colts were blanked for the sixth time in their last seven games. In that non-shutout, Houston broke loose for one run.

SHUTOUTS

Since leaving Texas two weeks ago, the last-place Colts have totaled 11 runs—and six of those came in a doubleheader split at San Francisco. Eight times they've been shut out, five times they've scored one run.

At the opposite end of the NL ladder Tuesday night, the St. Louis Cardinals reclaimed first from San Francisco, capitalizing on errant Giant throws in the ninth inning for a 6-5 victory. The Los Angeles Dodgers edged into second by trimming Cincinnati 4-1 behind Sandy Koufax' fine pitching and key hits from Jim Gilliam.

Philadelphia beat Pittsburgh 5-4 on Don Demeter's 10th inning homer and the Chicago Cubs clipped the New York Mets 4-1 with three runs in the seventh.

4-HITTER OVER COLTS

Cloninger zipped by the Colts with a four-hitter and the Braves got off to a fast start against Ken Johnson. Lee Maye belted Johnson's first pitch of the evening for a 400-foot homer and Joe Torre singled another run before the opening inning was over.

Milwaukee got two more in the seventh on a pair of doubles by Maye and Frank Bolling and Eddie Mathews' single.

In a first inning outbreak capped by Ken Boyer's two-run homer, the Cards rushed into a 5-0 lead against the Giants but it eventually took an unearned run in the last of the ninth to win it. In between, San Francisco slipped even with a run in the sixth and four in the eighth, when Willie McCovey homered with one on and Felipe Alou tripped with two on.

In the decisive St. Louis ninth, Tim Lincecum led off against Bob Bolin, the sixth Giant pitcher, with a single. Then Bolin made a bad throw to second after fielding Red Schoendienst's sacrifice bunt, and McCovey came the rest of the way when Orlando Cepeda pegged wildly to third after picking up Julian Javier's sacrifice. Koufax mastered Jim O'Toole in a battle between two star left-handers—with old pro Gilliam supplying the vital punch. Gilliam, who doubled in the third and scored the first Dodger run, doubled home Maury Wills with the tie-breaker in the eighth and scored again on Tommy Davis' single. Ron Fairly homered in the ninth off O'Toole, who allowed 11 hits in losing his fourth against 13 victories.

Tonight's Game

Taneytown at Mummasburg.

McSherrystown laced Harney 11-2 Tuesday evening at McSherrystown as the winners scored four times in the opening inning and went on to an easy decision.

The first four batters reached base and scored for McSherrystown. A triple by Jim Livelsberger, double by Bill Moul and single by Fred Murren were the big blows of the inning.

In the fifth inning Fred Murren, catcher, and Ron Martz, pitcher, both smacked home runs.

It was announced the McSherrystown-Littlestown game scheduled for Thursday at McSherrystown has been cancelled due to Littlestown being unable to field a team that evening.

A big crowd is expected tonight at Mummasburg where Taneytown will seek to tie Arendtsville for first place in the first-half race. A Mummasburg victory would give Arendtsville first-half honors.

Rec League

Scoring in all but the fifth inning, the Phillies breezed to a 12-2 victory over the Orioles Tuesday evening.

Steve Smith led the 16-hit attack of the winners with four hits in as many trips to the plate. Dave Blocher and Benson each chipped in with three hits.

Lester Miller and Peck Forney rapped a pair of hits each for the Orioles.

Approximately 145 junior high and senior high school wrestlers work out under the watchful eye of Frank "Sprig" Gardner, head instructor in Gettysburg College's second annual wrestling school. The school is in its third day and will continue until Friday. Sessions are being held in the morning and afternoon and there was a special coaches' session held Tuesday evening. Another such instruction will be held Thursday evening. The young wrestlers represent five states and the District of Columbia.

Gardner is currently serving as head wrestling coach at Gettysburg College. During the present week-long school, he is being assisted by 12 area coaches. (Times photo)

CONEWAGO LITTLE LEAGUE

The Nailers knocked Fee's Cardinals out of a tie for first place by taking an 8-4 verdict in a loosely played game Tuesday evening. The Nailers missed scoring in only the fifth frame.

"Hen" Noel was the winning hurler and also the batting star with a home run and pair of singles. Rich Keeney added a pair of singles for the Nailers. Nine errors by the losers contributed heavily to the Nailers' triumph. Noel allowed two hits until replaced by Eckenrode late in the game because of the heat.

Nation Eyes Gettysburg As Centennial Re-creation Of Battle Draws Near

By DAVE LEHERR

It was a peaceful day. The sky was blue. Soft breezes rippled the tall, green grass.

Standing there in the clump of trees on Cemetery Ridge, one could see various monuments dotted over the field. Pickett's line and stone ramparts were there, too.

It was hard to imagine that one hundred years ago, this same serene picture was the site of one of the bloodiest battles ever fought on American soil—the battle of Gettysburg.

51,000 KILLED

On this same lush green field in 1863, 51,000 Americans were killed, wounded or captured—28,000 Confederates and 23,000 Union.

This is where Confederate Gen. George Pickett made his famous charge.

Next week 27 states and the District of Columbia will join in commemorating the epic battle. The sound of cannon fire and drums—will echo once more over the historic battlefield where the tide was turned in the War Between the States.

PICKETT'S CHARGE

High mark of the commemoration will be next Wednesday when more than 1,000 men, wearing the Blue and Gray uniforms of the North and South will re-enact Pickett's charge which spelled the downfall of the Confederacy.

At 3 p.m.—the precise time it started a century ago—600 "Confederate troops" will emerge from Seminary Ridge to begin the mile long march to the ramparts and corpse of trees now known as the "High Water Mark of the Confederacy."

They won't have rifles or cannons—a smoke screen will simulate cannon fire. They will carry flags. And as they march, the intricate stereophonic system will blend the sound of cannon and rifle fire, bugles and drums.

NO CARNAGE

But this time there will be no combat or carnage. Instead, the charge will conclude with the Blue and Gray joining in fellowship to pledge their allegiance to the symbol of today's unit—the American Stars and Stripes.

All but two of the 29 states represented in the battle will take part in the three-day ceremonies Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Missing will be Louisiana and Tennessee which decided not to send representatives.

The battlefield will come alive each morning of the commemoration with vignettes of history, brief re-enactments of some of the folklore surrounding the famous battle.

Also on the program are a mammoth parade, dedications, pageantry, salutes and speeches.

President Kennedy was invited to speak at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial July 4 but declined because of his current European trip. The July 4 ceremonies were canceled.

AMONG GUESTS

Included among the guests of honor will be the great grandsons of the opposing generals in the battle—George Gordon Meade of the North and Robert E. Lee of the South.

Another highlight will be the unveiling of a new Gettysburg Centennial stamp by Postmaster General J. Edward Day July 1.

On the same day governors or representatives of the 27 states and District of Columbia attending the commemoration will lay wreaths at the foot of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial dedicated in 1930 to "peace eternal in a nation united." Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania will give the keynote address.

EXPECT 10 GOVERNORS

At least 10 governors are expected to attend two states—South Carolina and Florida—will dedicate new state monuments at the battlefield. Other states will rededicate their monuments.

A parade Tuesday will pass through the streets of Gettysburg where the second day of fighting actually took place.

The centennial is under the direction of the Gettysburg Centennial Commission which expects a minimum of 40,000 visitors each day during the ceremonies.

rest. Officials refused to comment on the colonel's 1952-57 Washington assignment.

Wennerstrom, now 57, also served twice at the Swedish Embassy in Moscow. He was acting as a special disarmament adviser to the Swedish Foreign Ministry when police picked him up.

The newspaper Dagens Nyheter, quoting informed sources, called Wennerstrom one of the best paid Russian spies uncovered so far. In protesting violations of both Swedish and international law to the Soviet Embassy, Swedish Foreign Minister Torsten Nilsson ordered the expulsion of Maj. Gen. Vitaly Nikolsky and George Baranovsky as Wennerstrom's contacts.

Wennerstrom retired from the air force with a pension in September 1961 but remained in government as a military expert for the Foreign Office.

Weddings

Miller-Paulucci

Pauline L. Paulucci, daughter of Mrs. Julia Paulucci, Leominster, Mass., became the bride of Mr. William Miller son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller, Abington, Mass., on June 1, in St. Ann's Church, Leominster.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father John J. Boudreau, Westminister, Mass. The best man was Edward Boudreau, Pittsburg, Mass.

A reception was held at Al-card's Supper House, Leominster, after which the couple left on a wedding trip through New Hampshire. They will reside at 102 Union St., Leominster.

The bride, a 1952 graduate of St. Bernard's High School, is employed as a secretary at Foster Grant Company. The bridegroom, a 1955 graduate of East Berlin High School, is serving in the U. S. Army.

Roemer-Durica

Miss Mary Lou Durica became the bride of David James Roemer, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Donald Roemer, pastor of the York Springs Church of God, June 15, at Phillipsburg, Pa. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father after which a reception was held.

The couple is now residing in Fort Wayne, Ind., where the groom is entering his last year of college, majoring in aeronautical engineering. Mrs. Roemer will be employed by the Presbyterian Hospital there.

SELL HEREFORD HERD

Herbert H. and Mary D. Wilson of the 4-Square Hereford Farm, Gettysburg, R. 5, have sold their herd of 34 registered polled Herefords including their sire, Lee Pawnee Mixer 7, to Frederick and Mae Kootz of Bendersville.

SP MEETING FRIDAY

A special meeting of the South Penn Baseball League officials will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Brantstown Athletic Association hall.

WGCT AIRINGS

The first broadcast will be of the Catholic Field Mass to be celebrated Saturday noon on the Eternal Light Peace Memorial. The network broadcast will begin at 12. However local coverage of the event on WGCT will commence at 11:55 a.m.

EISENHOWER PROGRAM

On Sunday evening, the PAB network will pick up the broadcast of the firemen's memorial service at the Gettysburg High School athletic field. That program will feature an address by former President Eisenhower. It will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The final of the three broadcasts will be of the governors' commemorative program at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial Monday afternoon. That broadcast, which will feature an address by Pennsylvania Governor William Scranton, will begin at 2 p.m.

WGCT will also carry a number of special broadcasts for local consumption during the centennial period. They will be announced later this week.

epic of lost-cause gallantry. Lee took all the blame, saying: "It is I that have lost this fight."

Armistead was mortally wounded and only a scant 6,000 of Pickett's men were able to fall back to the protection of their guns.

Here the destiny of our nation was decided. Eliot will assume the character of Samuel Wilkeson, a New York Times war correspondent, who reported the Battle of Gettysburg despite the death of his son at Gettysburg on the first day of battle. Eliot will narrate the events as Wilkeson reported them that day.

Abel is a veteran actor with a host of credits for his work in motion pictures, the stage and television. His most recent television appearances include "The Defenders" and "A Book For Burning."

Eliot is noted for his writings on military affairs in books, magazines and newspapers. During his career he has appeared on numerous radio and television programs and is past president of the Association of Radio-TV New Analysts.

First "Troops" Arrive For Centennial

The first "troops," four "Confederates" and one "Union," have arrived for Thursday evening's re-enactment of Early's capture of Gettysburg. The five, all students at Phillips Academy, walked here from Poolesville, Md., following the route of the Confederate Army. The division of "troops" between Confederate and Union has caused much horse play. The group is shown at its tent across the road from Lee's Headquarters putting on a display of "how the Confederates captured Union Troops at Gettysburg July 1, 1863." Shown, left to right, are Michael Schmidt, 17, Pittsburgh (with flag); Geoffrey Walker, 15, Columbia, S. C., with rifle; Peter Burr, 16, Concord, Mass., the captive; Hibberd Kline, 16, Pittsburgh, with sword, and John Lederer, 17, Philadelphia, with rifle. (Times photo)

400 Troops

Confederate infantry

A Sons of Union Veterans float depicting a hospital scene during the Battle of Gettysburg and prepared by Dr. Joseph Riley will follow the Confederates. The Sixth Infantry Brigade Field Music File and Drum Corps of Harrisburg will mark the center of the parade, followed by Union cavalry and infantry.

The procession will move to Baltimore St. where it will be reviewed by town councilmen, the mayor, and pageant participants from a wagon placed on E. Middle St. at Baltimore St.

On Baltimore St. the procession will turn south to W. High. There the Union forces will remain, in order to be in position for the re-enactment following. The Confederate forces will move on W. High St. to Franklin, then north to W. Middle and turn east on W. Middle to be in position for the "fighting."

Because of the danger involved, spectators will be kept from the sidewalks on the first two blocks of W. Middle St. during the skirmishing. However spectators may use the G. C. Murphy parking lot to watch the proceedings, or be in the alley leading into the street or at the Washington St. crossing.

Spectators on Baltimore St. will see much of the fighting. The spectators on the blocks of Baltimore St. both north and south of Middle St. will be kept on the sidewalks until the "shooting" in those blocks is over, after which they and the spectators in the parking lot, etc., on W. Middle St. will move into the streets to see the events at the courthouse and Taughinbaugh apartments.

One hundred eight men, mostly National Guardsmen, will assist in crowd control during the re-enactment-pageant to provide the spectators with safe positions from which to watch and to lead movement of the crowd to other locations as the pageant progresses.

Following the pageant a military ball will be held for the participants and any others in costume at the VFW Home.

Residents of the area who have 1863 period clothing are urged to wear it to add color to the spectators watching the program.

YOUTHS HIKE

The cars flash by as they trudged on foot along the roads, are now in perfect agreement.

ATTRACTED ATTENTION

They found, along the way, that their marching in uniform, carrying their blanket roll over their shoulders, with their Civil War muskets slung over their arms, that they attracted much attention. To be even more authentic, they slept and ate out of doors and bathed, as did the soldiers a century before them, in the Potomac River.

The walk to Gettysburg began in a way with the mother of Hibberd Kline, 16, of Pittsburgh, who, as a college coed, was a Civil War major Kline brought up in a Civil War library as he puts it, aroused the interest of fellow Phillips Academy students Michael Schmidt, 17, Pittsburgh; Geoffrey Walker, 15, Columbia, S. C.; Peter Burr, 16, Concord, Mass.; and John Lederer, 16, Philadelphia.

All eventually became members of reconstituted Civil War outfits, Kline, Schmidt and Walker.

Report 39 Dead In Plane Crash

DETMOLE, Germany (AP)—A Belgian air force transport carrying paratroopers to a practice exercise crashed here today.

British military sources reported eight of the 47 men aboard parachuted to safety seconds before the crash, but, so far as it is known, there were no other survivors.

The crash occurred at the troop training site Sennelager shortly before noon. Forty-two of the soldiers were paratroopers, the remaining five were the plane's crew.

The paratroopers were being flown over the training camp on a jumping exercise but before the jumping got started the plane plunged to the ground.

The aircraft exploded and burned, German police reported.

er of Co. K, 17th Virginia, "the Warrenton Rifles". Burr of the 9th Massachusetts Battery and Lederer of the 2nd North Carolina Infantry.

Each carried two blankets and a poncho on the hike here and came to the conclusion that the soldiers of a century ago, sleeping out in ten blankets and a poncho, "got cold during the night."

Kline started the march wearing Cavalry boots and found within a few miles that boots are fine for riding but poor for walking. The blisters he received are still a problem.

STARTED JUNE 17

The youths started their walk at Poolesville June 17 and walked seven miles to White's Ferry where they encamped overnight. The next day they crossed the river on the Ferry and walked to Point of Rocks. The next day they arrived in Harpers Ferry. The next portion of the trip was to Sharpsburg and then to Hagerstown. Lengthy stops were made at Harpers Ferry and Hagerstown. By Hagerstown, three of the youths had feet so blistered that a physician discouraged them from walking further. Only two completed the trip from Hagerstown to Gettysburg on foot, taking two days to make the trip.

They plan to take part in Thursday evening's battle, and to see the remainder of the events here and take part as they can.

DR. J. BENSON GIVEN GRANT FOR RESEARCH

Dr. John E. Benson, of the chemistry department at Gettysburg College, has received another year's support for undergraduate research from Research Corporation of New York.

The new grant will be used to continue a research program which was started a year ago. During the past year Dr. Benson and two students have been studying the amounts of carefully purified organic cases which adhere to the surface of metallic nickel.

This summer and next year the chemical reactions which occur between the nickel and the gases will be studied.

FURNISH FACILITIES

The college is furnishing the facilities for the research and the funds from Research Corporation are being used to purchase supplies and equipment to assist students financially and to offer students the opportunity to engage in scientific research early in their professional careers.

Research Corporation is a foundation which awards grants-in-aid for scientific research and strengthening of science programs in colleges, universities and other institutions of higher education. It was established in 1912 by Frederick Gardner Cottrell, scientist, teacher and inventor, with the gift of his patent rights in electrostatic gas cleaning. The current rate of grants expenditures is approximately $1 million a year.

Kennedy

their war memorial to take pictures. The memorial is in the British sector near the Brandenburg Gate.

OBSTRUCT VIEW

Visitors to the Brandenburg Gate can peer through its three arches down Unter den Linden, the governmental center of East Berlin.

Tuesday night the East Berlin regime hung flags from the arches to curtain Kennedy's view into the East. The flags ostensibly were raised in celebration of the visit Friday to East Berlin of Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

As the President's motorcade drove on to Checkpoint Charlie, an elderly woman broke from the throng and ran into the street with a child in her arms carrying a bunch of carnations. A policeman started to guide the pair away but the President stopped the car, took the flowers and spoke with the woman.

THROW CONFETTI

Hundreds of East Berliners, standing about 500 yards away behind the guns of East German guards, watched the President's arrival at Checkpoint Charlie. From the West Berlin side people threw confetti and streamers from balconies.

Windows of East Berlin buildings immediately around the checkpoint were empty, but as the President's motorcade drove away some women in windows farther to the East waved handkerchiefs.

Kennedy stayed 12 minutes at the checkpoint.

The President, landing after a 110-mile flight over Communist East Germany, saluted West Berlin's two million people for holding aloft the beacon of freedom for the Western world.

JET NOT BOTHERED

Kennedy's Air Force jet landed from Wiesbaden, West Germany, six minutes ahead of schedule. Although Soviet MIG fighter planes were reported in the vicinity of the central air corridor used by the President, they did not bother his jet.

Greeting Brandt on his arrival, Kennedy said the "legendary morale and spirit of the people of West Berlin have been a beacon for the free world."

Kennedy was accompanied by retired Gen. Lucius D. Clay, military governor of West Germany in 1948 at the time of the Berlin airlift and the President's special representative in the city during recent times of tension.

Kennedy said he was particularly proud to be accompanied by Clay, "an old veteran of this frontier who in good times and bad has been identified with the life of this city."

Midway Firemen To Burn Mortgage

The Midway Fire Co. will hold mortgage burning ceremonies for its engine house and new pump Sunday, July 14, at 2 p.m. at a public open house. A stag meeting for all firemen in the area will be held Friday, July 12.

The company was founded in April, 1956, and the $50,000 engine house was completed in 1959. A new pump was bought by the company in 1961 at an estimated cost of $24,000, including auxiliary equipment.

John Yealey, president, reports that mortgages on both the engine house and pump with equipment have been retired and that the Ladies' Auxiliary of the unit has donated a total of $2,500 toward the debt in the past year.

1963 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

100th Anniversary Of The Civil War In Adams County

All summer, the National Park Service will conduct a campfire program each evening in Pitzer's Woods on West Confederate Avenue, featuring the 30-minute MGM color film, "The Battle of Gettysburg."

June 29 to July 4—Antique Gun Show at Greenmount Fire Hall.

June 30—The Battle of Hanover will be re-enacted with about 3,000 armed and costumed troops taking part. The re-enactment will cover all phases of the skirmish and will last 3 1/2 hours, from 12:15 to 3:45 p.m. . . . the exact hours of the "battle" a century ago.

June 30—At 4:45 p.m. the Firemen's Association of Pennsylvania will honor the firemen who fought in the Battle of Gettysburg with programs at the 72nd Pennsylvania and 73rd New York monuments on the Gettysburg Battlefield. About 200 men in Civil War uniform will take part.

June 30—All churches of Gettysburg will be open for meditation during the commemoration. In addition, all clergymen will use as the theme for Sunday, June 30, "This Nation Under God."

June 30—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will be the speaker at a memorial service to be held at the Gettysburg High School athletic field at 7 p.m. The U. S. Army Field Band will present a concert as part of the program.

June 30—Veterans First Regimental Infantry, National Guard of Pennsylvania, placing of four wreaths.

July 1-3—Events in Gettysburg July 1 through 3 are for the most part being arranged by the Pennsylvania Centennial Commission for the observance of the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Among the events by the Commission are the appearance of "The General" here; a display of the Army's Civil War Diorama; a display of military equipment by the Army; re-creations of historical scenes on the battlefield.

July 1—At 10:30 a.m. the Adams County Civil War Centennial Commission will hold a program at West Middle and Baltimore Streets marking General Howard's being named commander of the Union forces here at that time, 100 years ago.

July 1—The State Commission will present programs in which Governor William Scranton of Pennsylvania and other governors will take part; programs in which land will be presented to the United States Secretary of the Interior by the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and the Gettysburg Battlefield Preservation Association and a program marking the issuance of the Gettysburg Commemorative Stamp with Postmaster Day participating. Time: 2:00 p.m.

July 1—Program at 14th Brooklyn Monument, N. Reynolds Ave., 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

July 1—Program at 147th N. Y. Volunteers Infantry, at N. Reynolds Ave., 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Upper Adams Little League

The Arendtsville Pirates solidified their first place grip and remained unbeaten as they nipped the second-place Bendersville Braves 3-2 Tuesday evening at Arendtsville. Each team managed but one hit as G. Wilson, the winner, gained the nod over Steve Guise in a mound duel. Steve Walde caught for the Pirates and S. Walker was the receiver for the Braves.

Biglerville's Phillies took an 11-7 decision from the Yankees at Bendersville, sewed up the outcome with three runs in the last inning.

Phillies 122 303-11
Yankees 300 400-7
Batteries: Phillies, C. Bucher, S. Wenk and C. Duffy; Yankees, Greg Weaver and Greg Forsythe.

At Biglerville, the Arendtsville Cardinals took an 8-5 contest from the Red Sox to gain a tie for second place. Rick Cogley of the Cardinals collected three hits in five trips, including a two-run homer in the fifth. D. Lady of the Red Sox poled a triple with the bases loaded. Gary Weikert, who hurled the distance for the winners, struck out six and walked 10.

Cardinals 120 140-8 8 1
Red Sox 011 030-5 4 0
Batteries: Cardinals, Gary Weikert and R. Cogley; Red Sox, L. Warner, D. Lady, D. Hess, R. Byers and J. Carey, D. Irwin.

showed that the chapter has handled 108 home service cases since January 1 and all but three of them involved servicemen or ex-servicemen.

The board agreed that in view of the many calls received, the chapter's stock of wheel chairs and crutches is to be renewed as soon as funds are available. Chairs presently in use have become antiquated, the directors were told.

HELP SAVE BARTON HOUSE

Other reports showed that office furnishings have been repaired and refinished by J. F. Sanders who donated his services. The board approved purchase of a typewriter.

Approval was given on recommendation of the board's executive committee for an increase of $250 per year in McCrorie's salary. He will now receive $4,250 annually.

In response to an appeal from national Red Cross headquarters for funds with which to restore the Clara Barton House, board members took up a collection and forwarded $10 to national for this purpose. Mr. Keefer reported he recently attended the 45th anniversary meeting of the York County chapter of the Red Cross.

ficers and men who had fought in the Revolution. The regiment fought in its first battle in 1794 when under command of General "Mad Anthony" Wayne it defeated the Indians at the Battle of Fort Recovery.

It won its name of "Old Guard" in 1847 when the U. S. Army captured Mexico City. As the 34th came marching into the Mexican capital General Winfield Scott removed his hat and turning to the members of his staff said, "Gentlemen, take off your hats to the Old Guard of the Army," and the name has been retained since.

The 3rd Infantry took part in the Battle of Gettysburg with Companies D, C, E, F, G, I and K participating in the battle here.

and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

"Grant unto us, O Holy One, the blessings of peace as we humbly learn the lessons of justice. And to Thee, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be all glory, now and evermore. Amen."

A uniform theme "One Nation Under God" will be used by all local pastors in their sermons Sunday morning and many of the churches have planned special musical programs in observance of the centennial.

All of the churches of the Gettysburg Ministerium will provide "spiritual relaxation" in their sanctuaries during the period from July 1 to July 3 and will offer rest room facilities to visitors. Many are making arrangements to operate canteens for tourists and provide other hospitality.

ASSIST AT MASS

The Bonneauville Catholic War Veterans, meeting Tuesday evening at their home, completed plans for participation in the Field Mass here Saturday and completed plans to serve lunch to members of the Catholic War Veterans and Knights of Columbus following the service at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial. A dance will be held Saturday evening at the post home in Bonneauville.

children as in a Communist school."

The former president prefaced his brief remarks with an apology for appearing before the group "with thin credentials." He said that "a wise man would avoid religious questions in the presence of theologians," but added that he frequently feels the need to ask questions. He was introduced by Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, pastor of the host church, who was in charge of the afternoon session at which the Rev. John Weber was elected temporary sessions clerk.

CITES NEW CHURCH

The local pastor welcomed the group to the new church, which he said was designed with "intentional simplicity symbolic of the worship of the spirit of God." He called attention to the architectural features of the church and said that it was designed for practical use for the future.

Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president emeritus of the Lutheran Seminary, will be the guest speaker this evening at "Family Night," one of the highlights of the four-day dedicatory program.

RENAME MODERATOR

The host pastor, the Rev. Mr. MacAskill presided at Tuesday's afternoon and evening sessions as the moderator of Carlisle Presbytery.

All of the Presbyterian churches in the county were represented by pastors and elders. E. Donald Scott was the commissioner from the Gettysburg church. The Rev. Dr. Joseph Woods Jr., stated supply at Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church attended with an elder, D. Walker Woods, and Great Conewago Presbyterian Church at Hunterstown was represented by its lay pastor, John R. Korver, and by Elders Dale Taughinbaugh and J. Frank McIlhenny.

The Rev. K. Warriston McCracken, Carlisle, was reappointed as moderator of the Great Conewago and the Shippensburg churches until the September meeting of Presbytery on September 24 in Falling Springs Church in Chambersburg.

Fourteen elders and one minister were memorialized. Among them was G. Ed Taughinbaugh of the Great Conewago Church, who was ordained in 1944 and died in January.

REPORTS PRESENTED

An extensive report on proposed changes in the Presbytery manual was received. The Presbytery placed on the table a report of a committee to study the advisability of securing the services of a general presbyter. A proposal that such a position be shared with Donegal Presbytery was advised against.

A report was received from a strategy committee on a proposal for some form of united ministry to two Presbyterian churches in the Newville area. Studies on the latter will continue before either enters into a building program of its own.

A petition was received from a number of churches in the Chambersburg area urging that Wilson leadership training school rules barring commuter students be revised.

A report on the current capital funds drive for the Presbyterian Homes of Central Pennsylvania showed over $135,000 raised in this Presbytery so far.

DINNER SERVED HERE

Allen Judson, a member of the faculty at Wilson College, reported on an historical collection relating to Carlisle Presbytery which has been started by Wilson authorities for Presbytery's use. Mr. Judson appealed for support in the gathering of the items pertinent to recording of the history of the church in this area.

A report from ministers and commissioners from Presbytery attending the sessions of General Assembly in Des Moines, Iowa, last month was presented by several speakers emphasizing the decisions there on church-state relations, Bible reading in schools and integration.

Dinner for the visiting ministers and their commissioners served in Fellowship Hall following the afternoon session.

LEADERS WILL HAVE KIN HERE AT CENTENNIAL

The direct descendants of the generals who commanded the Union and Confederate armies at Gettysburg nearly a century ago will participate in the 100th anniversary of that decisive battle.

Lt. Gen. Milton G. Baker, chairman of the Gettysburg Centennial Commission, announced today Mr. Robert E. Lee IV, of San Francisco, has accepted Pennsylvania's invitation to participate in centennial ceremonies. Lee is the great-grandson of General Robert E. Lee, who commanded the Army of Northern Virginia.

Earlier, George Gordon Meade III, of Pennlyn, great-grandson of General George Gordon Meade, who commanded the Army of the Potomac in the decisive Battle of Gettysburg, informed the Commission he would participate.

KE MAKES PRESENTATION

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, honorary chairman of Pennsylvania's Gettysburg Centennial Commission, will greet both men on June 30 and present to each one the official medallions struck to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the pivotal Civil War battle. Former President Eisenhower will be the principal speaker at the June 30 annual memorial program sponsored by the Gettysburg Fire Company.

A Sudanese official visiting the United States will be a guest of Commission.

Saudi Arabia Hits Egyptian Bombing

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Saudi Arabia claims Egyptian planes bombed a cluster of villages 30 miles inside Saudi territory Monday.

The attack, reported by Mecca radio, was one in a series in the strife stemming from Yemen's civil war.

SEEK LICENSE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Philadelphia Electric Co. subsidiaries have applied for a 50-year license for a $79 million pump-storage hydroelectric project to be built on the Susquehanna River, it was announced Monday.

The Power Commission said the companies have requested the single, new 50-year license to cover a proposed new pump-storage project at Muddy Run, Pa., and the existing Conowingo hydroelectric development which they now operate, scheduled to expire in 1976.

EMMITSBURG — Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. McCauslin announce the birth of their third child and second son June 11 at Warner Hospital, Gettysburg. Mrs. McCauslin is the former Miss Miriam Fitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fitz Sr., Emmitsburg.

physicians at a hospital here said his condition looks favorable toward recovery.

WIFE ARRESTED

Gent, who is under orders to report to Ft. Monroe, Va., as deputy commander of Joint Task Force 4, was found in temporary quarters at Tinker Air Force Base.

The shooting came 24 hours after the general's wife was arrested after an auto accident here on charges of driving while intoxicated, resisting arrest and assaulting an officer.

Mrs. Gent, 52, was taken to the base hospital and placed under sedation after the shooting. The Oklahoma Crime Bureau said there was no sign of gunpowder on Mrs. Gent's hands.

The same test was performed on the general and a small amount was found on his left hand. A bureau spokesman said the gunpowder deposit was "not enough to form a pattern."

FREED WOMAN HAPPY AFTER CZECH PRISON

PASSAIC, N.J. (AP) — Tears flooded the woman's eyes as she left the airliner. "I'm happy, I'm very happy to be back home," she said. Then she ran to embrace her family.

Helen Kozersky, 52, had returned to the United States after more than three years in a Communist Czechoslovakian prison as a spy.

She arrived at New York's Idlewild Airport from Prague Monday night, afraid, a son said, "that nobody would be there to meet her, that she would be alone."

SEES DAUGHTER

She was startled by newsmen and photographers awaiting her, but then spotted her daughter, Helen, 14. "You've grown up!" she cried. The girl is a head taller than her mother.

Meeting her at the airport were her husband John, 55, a factory worker; her sons, Michael, 23, John Jr., 22, and Helen.

Mrs. Kozersky declined to discuss her espionage conviction. Michael said she is to meet with representatives of the State Department about the charges and her imprisonment.

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — James C. Shaw, 42, was killed Monday when his foreign compact bus side-swiped an auto throwing Shaw out.

NEW YORK (AP) — Albert C. Simmonds Jr., 60, board chairman of the Bank of New York, died Sunday night at the Harkness Pavilion of the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center. Simmonds was a former president of the New York State Bankers Association and a trustee of Vanderbilt University.

Joelson, D.N.J., had been active in trying to secure her release after family appeals to him, President Kennedy and the State Department.

She had been arrested May 27, 1960, while visiting her native Czechoslovakia, and sentenced to 35 years imprisonment for spying. The sentence later was reduced to 10 years. Specific charges against her never were made public.

CLANCY TRIO TO PLAY HERSHEY

HERSHEY, Pa. — The Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem, who have been called the "front rank of this country's folk performers" by the New York Times, have been booked as an extra, added attraction during the Saturday dance at Hershey Park's Starlight Ballroom. Also featured will be Chuck Laskin and his orchestra.

Brothers Paddy, Tom and Liam Clancy, from County Tipperary, and Tommy Makem, a handsome lad from County Armagh, met briefly in Ireland in 1953. But it wasn't until 1956 when they met again in New York, that they were persuaded by friends to sing together professionally. They had charmed countrymen back home with their voices and got together weekends later in New York "out of the sheer joy of it" to sing songs of the old country. Finally they succumbed to pressure and cut a record with Pat's company which he had organized several years earlier.

In the months that followed they brought their music to famous night clubs and concert halls throughout the country and reached the hearts of America's TV viewers when they appeared on the "Ed Sullivan Show," "P.M. East" and "P.M. West," the "Arthur Godfrey Show," the "Tonight Show" and several others.

SCHOOL BILLS HELD OVER TO NEXT WEEK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Senate Republican leaders were faced today with the task of trying to win votes for an amended version of Gov. Scranton's plan for compulsory school district reorganization.

The task may prove difficult in the wake of reports of mounting opposition in the Senate Republican caucus. At least four GOP senators were said to be balking. Democrats refused to lend a single vote.

House GOP leaders were forced back to the drawing board with a bill to raise school district subsidies by $38 million in the next two years for teacher salaries.

ERROR DISCOVERED
A belatedly discovered error in the subsidy bill would have cost an estimated $14 million more than proposed.

The twin developments Tuesday forced legislative leaders in both houses to postpone until next week debate and action on the key education issues.

The setbacks disappointed members of both houses, but they called sessions today to clear out some routine legislation.

The House began one of the first major moves in the adjournment drive when its appropriations committee sent to the floor a package of bills for spending $89 million for preferred and non-preferred purposes in the fiscal year opening July 1.

"NOT QUITE SATISFIED"
The measures included $124 million for industrial development and $8 million for urban renewal.

However, the committee held up the principal appropriation bill.

which would provide $992.9 million for day-to-day operations. Senate Majority Leader James S. Berger concurred that some Republican senators "are not quite satisfied" with the school district reorganization bill, which was considerably weakened by the Senate Education Committee.

House Majority Leader Albert W. Johnson said the flaws in the school subsidy bill were discovered Tuesday night and discussed by the GOP leaders at a meeting with Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alesandroni.

SALARY BILL PROBLEMS
One of the errors involves distribution of subsidies to distressed school districts, said Johnson. It was this error he added, that would add $14 million to the bill.

"We had no choice but to delay action until next week."

The school teacher salary hike is scheduled for July 1, but Johnson said it is impossible for the measure to clear both houses by that date. So another bill was released by the Education Committee to set back for this year only the start of teachers' contractual years from July to August.

Other highlights:
Education Television — The Scranton administration sent to the House a bill to provide $970,000 for development of a statewide educational television network.

The federal government is expected to match the money for transmission facilities under the National Defense Education Act.

Boxing — The Senate Committee on Judiciary General killed a bill that would abolish boxing in Pennsylvania. Sen. William Z. Scott, R-Carbon, committee chairman, said his committee voted overwhelmingly to table the measure for the remainder of the session.

Highways — The House State Government Committee gave preliminary approval to Gov. Scranton's proposal to use one-third of the state Highway and Bridge Authority's $300 million borrowing capacity for noninterstate road construction. The governor plans to use $37 million of the money next year to help finance a record $261.7 million construction program.

Philadelphia Schools — House Republicans refused to consider until Thursday a package of three bills designated to provide upward of $4.8 million in new tax revenues for Philadelphia schools.

Boating — The House passed and sent to the Senate on a vote of 146-56 a bill to retain control of boating in the state Fish Commission and make Pennsylvania boat licensing regulations conform with federal standards.

Dick Guesman, a 250-pound defensive tackle, will do the field goal kicking for the New York Jets in the American Football League.

2 DROWN IN RESCUE TRY

PERRYOPOLIS, Pa. (AP)—Two Fayette County men drowned Tuesday in the Youghiogheny River near Perryopolis while attempting to save a teenage boy who also lost his life.

The victims were Andrew Wilson, 66, his grandson, Wayne Jones, 13, and Ray Little, 26, all of Belle Vernon.

The three were fishing. Witnesses said the boy slid off a rock into the river and that the two men dived into the water after him.

It was not known if any of them could swim. The bodies were recovered by swimmers.

A 15-year-old boy drowned at the same place last week.

CARNEGIE FUND HONORS HERO FOR BRAVERY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Garey La Monte Rickley of Baden R. D. 1, Beaver County, who gave his life in saving a woman from drowning in the Atlantic Ocean, was cited for bravery Tuesday by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

Rickley's act of heroism, for which he was awarded a bronze medal, occurred June 16, 1962, when he saved Carol Anne Seyle from drowning off the Isle of Palms, S. C. Rickley, 29, was a student at The Citadel at the time.

Rickley, Miss Seyle and four other young persons were wading in the surf. They then moved into water about 12 feet deep some 120 feet from shore where they were hit by waves two feet high.

Rickley swam to Miss Seyle, a non-swimmer, who was being carried farther out to sea by the waves.

She grasped Rickley's shoulders and the two started toward the shore but their progress was hindered by waves breaking over them and a strong tidal current beneath them.

When they got to within 10 feet of wadable water, Rickley said he couldn't go any further and pushed Miss Seyle several feet toward the shore. He then went under.

Miss Seyle, helped to the shore by another swimmer, lost consciousness but was revived a short time later. Rickley's body was recovered by the Coast Guard.

The four others in the party reached shore safely, although another young woman had to be pulled ashore.

Rickley was one of 25 persons in 12 states honored by the commission for acts of bravery.

INADEQUATE MOISTURE
HARRISBURG (AP) — Inadequate soil moisture became a problem for southeastern Pennsylvania farmers last week, according to the state Crop Reporting Service.

In its weekly report issued Tuesday, the service said that some potato fields in Lehigh County had to be irrigated. Elsewhere, weather was generally ideal for most farm needs.

EUB Conference Is Court Approved

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dauphin County Judge Homer L. Kreider Tuesday approved formation of the East Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The new conference, with headquarters here, will have a membership of 75,000 in an area from Maine to Maryland and from the East Coast west to Harrisburg.

It was formed by the consolidation of the East Pennsylvania Conference and the Northeastern Conference. The consolidation was carried out under terms of the church's nonprofit corporation charter.

CUT SENTENCE OF MURDERERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Two convicted murderers were eligible for parole today as a result of action by the state Parole Board.

The board announced Tuesday that it has commuted the life imprisonment sentences of Horace R. Bowers of Luzerne County and Walter Hurston of Philadelphia.

Bowers was convicted of first degree murder in the shooting of a state policeman during an attempted holdup of a tavern in 1937. The state policeman was in civilian clothes and was not on duty at the time.

It was Bowers' seventh appeal for commutation of his sentence. The Luzerne County district attorney's office told the board it was not thoroughly familiar with the case, but was generally opposed to commutations of such sentences.

POSTS FILLED BY SCRANTON
HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate is considering the appointment of attorney Malcolm B. Petriken of Wallingford, Delaware County, as chairman of the state Labor Relations Board.

Gov. Scranton named Petriken to a six-year term on the board Tuesday at an annual salary of $12,000. If confirmed, he would succeed board chairman Michael J. Crosetto of Gettysburg, whose term expired.

Petriken served on the board prior to the Democratic administration of former Gov. George M. Leader, who took office in 1955.

Scranton also appointed three members of the state Civil Service Commission and asked the Senate to confirm them.

John A. M. McCarthy, a Philadelphia Democrat, was reappointed while the two new appointees were Mrs. Mary D. Barnes, Pittsburgh, and C. Herschel Jones, Lewisburg, both Republicans.

2 DROWN IN RESCUE TRY
PERRYOPOLIS, Pa. (AP)—Two Fayette County men drowned Tuesday in the Youghiogheny River near Perryopolis while attempting to save a teenage boy who also lost his life.

OVERPASS BIDS

of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin and family were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers and family, Hershey; Mrs. Ralph Bender and son, of Canton, Pa.; Mrs. Daniel Clymer and Mrs. Irene Nafziger, Lancaster.

Mrs. Nellie Leatherman spent several days last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bessie Riddle, Hanover.

COLLECTION OF TAX IS PUSHED
HARRISBURG (AP)—The Revenue Department says it is intensifying its efforts to assure collection of Pennsylvania's new 5 per cent sales tax, especially in regard to items bought outside the Commonwealth.

A spokesman for the department said Tuesday details of the crackdown could not be disclosed, pending its completion.

It was learned, however, that the efforts were being directed at the state's border areas. The purpose, in addition to collecting state revenue, is to protect Pennsylvania's border-area merchants, who collect the 5 per cent levy.

The Revenue Department said it was not stopping cars to check on items taxable under the sales tax law.

Some attorneys said privately that revenue agents probably do not have authority to search cars, since items subject to the sales tax are not considered contraband.

The Justice Department said, however, that state law and a 1962 Supreme Court ruling indicated that law enforcement officers had authority to stop and search vehicles in search of contraband, such as cigarettes and alcoholic beverages which do not bear state tax stamps.

CRITIC LIKES REPLACEMENT FOR G. MOORE

NEW YORK (AP)—"The Keefe Brasselle Show," bowing in Tuesday night as Garry Moore's summer replacement on CBS, is a pleasant, tuneful and well-intentioned hour of variety.

The opening show—a last-minute substitute for the program originally announced—boasted a number of guest stars in unlikely combinations. There was Zsa Zsa Gabor, playing the comedy femme fatale role she has developed so adroitly, Fred ("Car 54") Gwynne, making his sad faces, and marvelous Barbara Streisand, who can suffer or clown in song with equal facility.

ANOTHER GAME SHOW
Brasselle is a good looking fellow who can sing a little and dance a little, but is a little awkward in the comedy department. He has surrounded himself with a program "family" including comedienne Ann B. Davis, Rocky Graziano (who just had to be a better prizefighter than he is a comic) and a shapely blonde dancer named Noelle Adam, who didn't dance much but stroled around the stage a lot in tight.

The musical and dancing portions of the show were pretty good, almost winter-television quality. But the show obviously was in need of some decent comedy material, or theme or something to tie it together.

A half hour earlier, CBS dropped "Picture This" into Jack Benny's usual time period. This is still another game show, obviously inspired in its physical set-up by "Password." The gimmick, however, involves having the contestant picked from the audience draw a picture from a description by his celebrity teammate and try to guess what he's drawing.

The game came off unsatisfactorily, an understatement. Host Jerry Van Dyke and celebrity guests Orson Bean and Gretchen Wyler tried hard and futilely to generate some interest and excitement. It was a crushing bore.

Recommended tonight: "The Image Man," NBC, 9-10 (EDT) —Macdonald Carey and Melvyn Douglas in a suspense tale; "Reckoning," CBS, 10-11 —beginning a series of re-runs from other seasons, starting with "Tahiti," with Franchot Tone and Kim Hunter.

STATE EMPLOYMENT DROPS 37,000 IN MAY
HARRISBURG (AP)—The Labor and Industry Department reports employment in Pennsylvania totaled 4,266,000 in mid-May—37,000 below the figure recorded a year ago.

William P. Young, labor and industry secretary, said however, the mid-May total represented a 33,900 job increase over the number of jobs in mid-April.

SIoux CITY, Iowa (AP)—Berry J. Sisk, 67, a municipal judge and part-time composer, died Tuesday in a Sioux City hospital. Sisk composed the official American Legion march "Armistice Day Forever March," as well as "Saxophone Waltz," a number popularized by Paul Whiteman.

BOY DROWNS
MONTGOMERY, Pa. (AP) —Robert K. Updegrave, 13, drowned Tuesday while swimming with a group of friends in the Susquehanna River in this Lycoming County community. The youth's body was recovered about an hour after he disappeared. He was one of five children of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Updegrave.

DEATH CHARGE VERDICT SET FOR THURSDAY
HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) —Three judges will hand down a verdict Thursday on whether a Charles County socialite is legally responsible for the death of a Negro barmaid.

The judges, hearing the case without a jury, acquitted William D. Zantinger Monday of a second degree murder charge. But the 24-year-old tobacco farmer is still charged with manslaughter and assault on Mrs. Hattie Carroll and assault on two of her co-workers.

Throughout the three-day trial in the Washington County Circuit Court, the defense pictured Zantinger as an exuberant drunk just tapping people with a 26-cent novelty cane which he carried at the Spinster's Ball, a white-tie affair Feb. 8 in Baltimore.

The state contended that Zantinger whacked the 51-year-old Mrs. Carroll on the shoulder with the cane and called her "nigger" and "black bitch" after complaining about service at the ballroom bar.

This, said the prosecutor, caused her blood pressure to shoot up and induced the massive brain hemorrhage from which she died nine hours later.

Defense lawyers countered by saying the prosecution had failed to prove that Zantinger actually had the cane during the encounter with Mrs. Carroll.

The defense also argued that Mrs. Carroll might have become overly excited and suffered her fatal collapse while watching Zantinger flail another waitress with the cane.

SCOUTS PLAN SERVICE HERE AT CENTENNIAL

The Explorers of Post 84 had a brief business meeting Monday evening at the Community Center followed by a leaders' meeting at the Maple Ave. School playground. Post President Thomas Shildt presided at the business meeting and led final arrangements for the campout on Pardee Field, Gettysburg Battlefield, on Saturday to Wednesday.

Ronald Benner was appointed chairman on arrangements for the event. All of the leaders and Explorers who are planning to assist with the centennial are to meet at the Community Center Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to go to Pardee Field to set up camp. The duties of the post members will be to be ushers at the three-lane speakers' platform. All boys are to be in uniform, summer attire will be acceptable.

James Long reported that plans are progressing for the stands to be conducted at carnivals. Committee member Paul Hollinger gave a short talk on advancement. Post Advisor Stanley F. Frock gave a talk on the findings of the Royer-Greaves School for the Blind at which he and Mrs. Frock and family and Mr. Frock's mother, Mrs. Jennings V. Frock, attended the open house program Sunday at Paoli.

LETTER IN BAILLE

Mr. Frock read a letter, which was written by one of the Paoli boys in braille, which thanked the Explorers and the leaders for hosting the Paoli Scouts on June 8 and 9 on a camping trip and a tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield. The letter will be framed and hung on the wall.

At the leaders' meeting following on the playground a discussion was held concerning setting up an advancement program consisting of working on waterfront advancements to be held during the months of June, July and August. The super activity for 1964 was discussed and will be decided at a later date.

There will be no post meeting next Monday due to the centennial. The next meeting will be July 8 when the Explorers will meet at the Community Center at 6:30 p.m. to go to Starnes' Dam for the first water front course under the direction of Stanley Frock, post advisor, and Lee Krout, associate advisor.

TROOP MAKES PLANS

This Saturday all of those Catholic Explorers who are going to field Mass at the Peace Light Inn are to contact Stanley Frock and he will see that transportation is provided. The cars will leave the Community Center at 10:30 a.m.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 84 made plans to participate in the camporee to be held in connection with the Battle of Gettysburg Centennial at the meeting on Monday evening at the Community Center. The camporee, for Scouts and Ex-

Presbyterians Will Make Racial Plea

CAMP HILL, Pa. (AP)—Presbyterian ministers throughout Pennsylvania will make a special plea Sunday for racial equality. The Pennsylvania Synod of the United Presbyterian Church announced Tuesday that copies of a pastoral letter would be read to congregations.

The letter calls on the local churches "to welcome persons to membership and fellowship without regard to 'color, origin, or worldly condition.'"

In making public the letter, the Rev. J. Frederick McKirachan of Catasauqua, chairman of the synod's Commission on Race, said:

"No Christian can now stand idly by as a 'moderate' or undecided. The day demands a forthright stand on the principles of Christian life, justice, and equality."

Court Martial Bill Is Sent To Senate

HARRISBURG (AP)—House approval legislation creating a new state police court martial board was before the Senate today.

A pair of bills, setting up the three-member board to regulate the dismissal, suspension and demotion of enlisted officers, was reported out of the Senate State Government Committee Tuesday without amendment.

One bill stipulates that the board would be named by the state police commissioner while the other would ban the dismissal or demotion of any state police officer without action of the board.

A similar bill was vetoed by former Gov. David L. Lawrence in 1961.

Explorers, will be held on Pardee Field, Gettysburg Battlefield. The group will leave on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. from the Community Center and the affair will continue through Wednesday. Instructions for the camporee were related by Scoutmaster Edgar A. Wolfe, Assistant John R. Rudisill and Victor L. Reynolds and Committeeman Luther D. Snyder.

The annual troop camp will be held this year during the first week in August at Natural Dam. The next meeting of Troop 84 will be held Monday, July 8, leaving at 6 p.m. from the Community Center for Natural Dam.

LEGION TO MEET

A leaders' meeting followed the troop meeting on Monday. Future activities were discussed. Present in addition to the four leaders who attend the troop session were Committeeman Charles E. Ritter, chairman, Committeeman Paul L. Hollinger and Associate Explorer Post Advisor Robert Hahn.

Mrs. Oliver, Erb, Mrs. Blanche Shadle and Mrs. James Duttera will serve as the June hostesses for the gathering of the Ladies'

MAKING PLANS FOR CARNIVAL

Plans were discussed for the annual summer carnival at the June meeting of Kingsdale Fire Company No. 1 on Monday evening in the engine house, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd. The carnival will be held August 26-31 on the grounds in the rear of the engine house. There will be rides, games, exhibits, prizes and refreshments. Special entertainment has been arranged for each evening.

President Harold O. Gerrick presided and heard reports from Theron Bair, secretary, and Ernest Baumgardner, treasurer. The relief committee reported that $93 had been received from the Germany Twp. Road board for the company relief fund. The trustees announced that a lawn mower had been purchased for company use. At the conclusion of business, refreshments were served by President Gerrick.

The Kingsdale firemen will meet again on Monday, July 22, at 8 p.m. The social committee includes Charles Slusser, Robert Spangler and Alvin Spangler.

LADIES' NIGHT HELD

Ladies' Night was observed by Sylvania Lodge No. 321, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at a gathering on Monday evening in the lodge rooms on W. King St. Melvin A. Miller, chairman for the entertainment, presided for the following program: Group singing of "America," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Naomi C. Schwartz; invocation, the Rev. William R. Jones, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church; address on Odd Fellowship, Arthur E. Bair Sr., of town; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kump, W. Myrtle St., showed slides of their recent trip to Hawaii; "Blest Be the Tie" was sung by the group. Refreshments, including strawberries and ice cream, were served to the approximately 75 persons in attendance.

The Women's Missionary Society of St. Luke's United Church of Christ will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage, near White Hall. Mrs. Donald Gardner will be discussion leader. The June meeting of the Sunshine Class of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, will be held in the parish hall on Thurs-

Aid Society of St. John's Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday in the church social hall.

The second June meeting of Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, will be held at 8 p.m. on Thursday at the post home, E. King St. Refreshments will be served by Carroll E. Arter and Lloyd F. Bortner.

Members are asked to return their rainy day bags at the meeting of the Starr Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 8 p.m. on Thursday at the church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Ralph Conover, Mrs. Homer Sell Sr. and Mrs. Emory C. Snyder.

Former Judge Hirt Dies Monday At 82

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Retired Judge William E. Hirt, a member of the Pennsylvania Superior Court for 20 years, died in Hamot Hospital late Monday night. He was 82.

Judge Hirt was appointed to the court in 1939 by former Gov. Arthur H. James and retired in 1959. He served on the bench of Erie County Common Pleas Court from 1921 to his appointment to Superior Court.

The judge was admitted to the hospital last Thursday.

He is survived by his widow, Emma, of Erie, and a son, J. William of Pittsburgh.

ROBERTS EYES 300 VICTORY HURLING MARK

By CHARLES MAHER Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Although he is five-sixths of the way there, Robin Roberts is not sure he can stick around long enough to become a 300-game winner.

But right now, he says, the only time the idea of retiring appeals to him is when he's trying to retire the other side.

The 36-year-old right-hander picked up the 250th victory of his major league career Tuesday night, pitching a four-hitter as the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Los Angeles Angels 10-0.

DOESN'T KNOW

"I don't know if I can make it to 300," Robbie said. "But it's not out of the question—not after I've just pitched a shutout."

Roberts said he "never gave much thought to retiring," not even after the New York Yankees released him outright early last season.

"But I'll admit," he said, "there may have been times when I've had occasion to retire."

The only active major league pitchers with more than 250 victories are Milwaukee's Warren Spahn, who has 337, and Cleveland's Early Wynn, who has 299. Spahn is 42 and Wynn 43. K Roberts is still pitching at their age, he could finish with 300 victories and a little change.

His shutout Tuesday night was the 37th of his 16-year major league career and his second this season. He struck out four, walked none and didn't let the Angels get a runner beyond second base.

Fight Results

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEW YORK — Tito Marshall, 144½, Panama, outpointed Ricky Ortiz, 143, Puerto Rico, 8.

HALIFAX, N.S.—Blair Richardson, 167, Canadian middleweight champion, stopped Bob Young, 169, Providence, R.I., 4.

SAN ANTONIO — Evaristo Salinas, 118, Mexico City, stopped Oscar German, 117½, San Antonio, 10.

FRESNO, Calif.—Gabe Terronez, Fresno, outpointed Frank Ramirez, Los Angeles, welterweights, 12.

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP)—Britain's latest challenger for the Americas Cup — a $12,000, 12-meter yacht—will be launched next month in Holy Loch. It is unnamed.

day at 7:30 p.m. Members are asked to return their rainy day bags at the meeting of the Starr Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church at 8 p.m. on Thursday at the church. The hostesses will be Mrs. Ralph Conover, Mrs. Homer Sell Sr. and Mrs. Emory C. Snyder.

Charles McDewitt, an Idaho legislator and lawyer, said it was "too far-reaching and it invades personal rights and privacy."

Donald Lukens, Republican secretary of the House of Representatives Rules Committee, declared the Kennedy program "goes too far. The administration has tried to pass the buck to Congress."

At an earlier news conference, the two candidates for chairman of the Young Republican National Federation had sharp words for President Kennedy's civil rights proposals.

Bob Cohen of New Hampshire was appointed to head a five-member subcommittee — representing all parts of the country — to come up with a civil rights comment.

Bride Of Month Seeking Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The bride of actor James Craig claims he beat her.

Jane Valentine 29, sued for divorce Tuesday, asking for $500 monthly support and a restraining order preventing him from annoying her or disposing of assets pending a hearing.

Craig, 51, and Miss Valentine were married last March 17 and separated June 21, her Superior Court complaint said.

OPERATION IS FATAL TO ONE SIAMESE TWIN

PITTSBURGH (AP)—One of the Siamese twin girls separated last Wednesday died early today in Children's Hospital.

Cause of death of Ruth Ann Temoshenko was not known immediately. An autopsy was ordered.

The other twin Rose Mary, continued in satisfactory condition, the hospital said.

BORN JUNE 7

The girls were born June 7 to Mrs. John Temoshenko, 32, of nearby Tarentum R. 3.

Immediately after the separation, doctors said the infants were in satisfactory condition. However, it was said the girls would not be out of danger for several days.

The girls were joined at the stomach. They shared one organ, the liver, which was divided in half.

Both girls contacted a staphylococcus infection during the weekend. The hospital said they responded well to treatment, but were weakened by the infection, especially Ruth Ann.

Dr. William B. Kiesewetter, chief surgeon at the hospital, said previously that Siamese twins born the way Rose Mary and Ruth Ann were have been separated successfully less than five times in medical history.

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Fourteen-year-old Mike Bishop of Lexington scored a 158-yard hole-in-one at the Picadome Golf Course Monday.

MAYE SOLVES BRAVES' LEFT FIELD PROBLEM

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Manager Bobby Bragan appears to have solved a long-standing left field problem with Lee Maye and as a result the Milwaukee Braves are making up ground in the National League race.

Maye collected his fifth homer, a double and a walk and scored two runs as Tony Cloninger fired a four-hit, 4-0 victory Tuesday night in extending the puncheon Houston Colts' losing streak to 10 games.

Backed by Maye's homer on Houston starter Ken Johnson's first pitch of the game, Cloninger survived a bases-loaded situation in the second inning and then breezed the rest of the way.

Although he batted .300 in 51 games with Milwaukee in 1959 and .301 in 41 games the next year, Maye has had trouble earning a regular job with the Braves. He hit .271 with 14 homers, in 1961, but dipped to .244 last season when he was sidelined by pneumonia for several weeks and lost 25 pounds.

"I still was 10 or 12 pounds underweight this spring, but now I'm back to 188 pounds and feel as strong as ever," Maye said. "I don't want to say too much for fear of jinxing myself. All I want to do is to play regularly. "However, I'm not swinging as hard as I used to. I'm just trying to meet the ball and it's paying off. Dixie Walker, our batting coach, has helped a lot."

LOCAL MEN GET OFFICES IN SUV

John H. Stark, a past commander and member of the Gettysburg Camp of the Sons of Union Veterans, was elected commander of the Pennsylvania Department of the Sons of Union Veterans at its convention at Hazleton. Plans were made to hold next year's convention in Pittsburgh and the 1963 convention at Gettysburg.

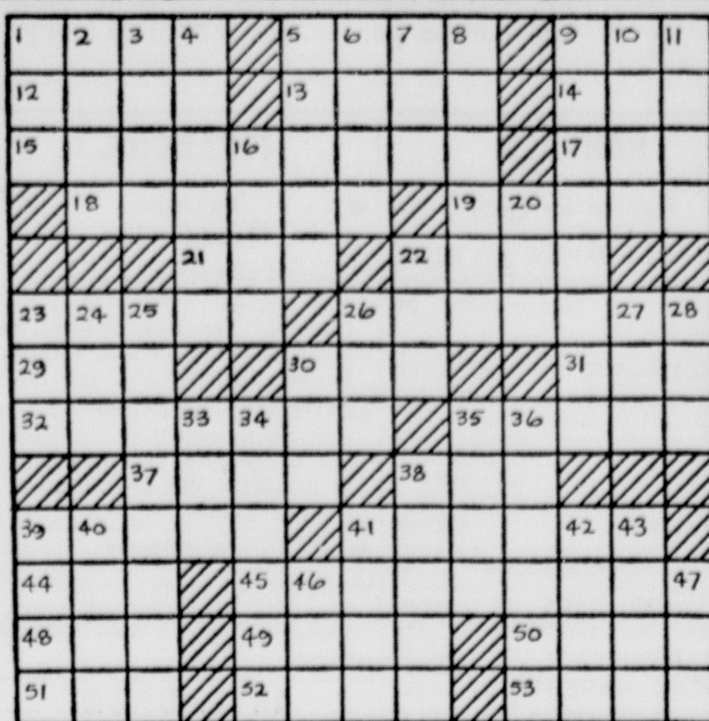

Chester S. Shriver, Gettysburg R. 4, another past commander of the local camp and a past state and current national commander of the SUV, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the state organization.

Arthur W. Warman, E. Middle St., another past commander of the local camp and its treasurer, was elected chaplain of the state organization. Other officers named included: Clarence E. Riddell, Philadelphia, state vice commander; Abram Hess, Wilkes-Barre, department junior vice commander; Herman A. Poehler, Philadelphia; Ivan E. Frantz, York, and John D. Erskine, Newtown, Square, department council; Frank M. Heacock Jr., Chester, patriotic instructor; Frank M. Heacock Sr., Wilmington, Del., department counselor; Edwin K. Kramer, Lemoyne, chief of staff; Lyle Fairchild, Wilkes-Barre, personal aide, and Robert Bannan, Harrisburg, press correspondent.

SPECIAL MEETING

There will be a special meeting of the Fairfield Fire Company this evening at 8 o'clock at the fire engine house to make final arrangements for the annual firemen's carnival that will open next Tuesday.

JUDGE DAIRY CATTLE

Members of the Adams County 4-H Dairy Calf Club were hosts Tuesday to club members from Franklin, Cumberland and York Counties for district judging competition. In the morning two classes of Guernseys were judged at the farm of Lester Van Arsdale, Biglerville, and in the afternoon three classes of Holsteins at the home of Paul and Lucy Fissel, Biglerville R. 1.

LOST CARGO FOUND

Ray Foulk, Queen St., turned over to borough police this morning boxes of electrical fixtures and screws found near his place which may have fallen from an electrician's car or truck.

USE 1933 PRICES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A downtown Pittsburgh cafe observed its 30th anniversary Tuesday by cutting back some prices to what they were 30 years ago.

You could get a turkey dinner with potatoes, vegetable, pie and coffee for 35 cents. Beer was a nickel.

The owners said about 1,500 dinners, or approximately a half ton of turkey, were served.

DILLON HEADS CADHA AGAIN

Walter B. Dillon, administrator of Annie M. Warner Hospital, has been reappointed chairman of the Council on Association Development of the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania, it was announced today by John F. Workman, executive director of the state-wide hospital organization.

During Dillon's administration the association attained a new high in institutional members and set a new record of hospital trustee members, numbering more than 1,000 at mid-year. Dillon's appointment was made by James I. McGuire, Pittsburgh, who became the 41st president of the association at its recent annual meeting. Robert A. Kumpf, Lewistown, was named president-elect at that time, and Robert W. Gloman, Wilkes-Barre, was chosen secretary-treasurer. Dr. P. F. Lucchesi, Philadelphia, was elected the association's vice president.

Dillon's council, one of eight operating groups of the association, is planning a state-wide hospital conference here October 22, 23 and 24 when more than 700 hospital administrators, trustees, auxiliaries and administrative officials will attend.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Those operated upon this morning at the Warner Hospital for the removal of their tonsils included: Karen L. and Mary L. May, Littlestown R. 2; Stephen C. Smith, Hanover; Eugene T. Swartz, Hanover R. 4; Roger E. and Carolyn L. Shafer, R. 3; Susan M. and Barbara A. Timmins, Hanover R. 5.

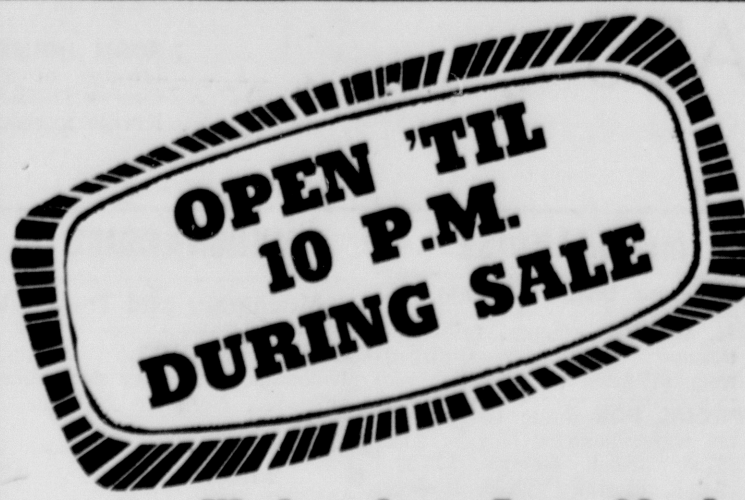

Admissions: Mrs. Robert H. Topper, 22 York St.; Mrs. Roger Cooley, Aspers R. 1; Mrs. Betty Jane Hess, Taneytown R. 1; Mrs. Nelson Funt, Aspers R. 1; Mrs. Lawrence W. Rentzel, R. 4; Mrs. James Neely, Orttanna; Malcolm E. Hess, Littlestown; Mrs. R. Eugene Myers, Thurmont.
Discharges: Mrs. James Welty, Keymar, Md.; Mrs. M. Elizabeth Myers, R. 3; Mrs. Margaret E. Tressler, 52 Steinwehr Ave.; Harry Holton, 221 Chambersburg St.; Robert E. Newman, Fairfield; Jerome J. Seymour, R. 5; Alan N. Zepp, New Oxford R. 2; Sharon K. Lehgh, Littlestown; Patricia K. Sharrer, Keymar R. 2; Karen L. Richardson, Arendtsville; Gail C. Butler, Aspers R. 1; Holly T. Eyer, Emmitsburg R. 1; Mrs. Charles J. Kerrigan and infant daughter, 154 Hanover St.; Mrs. Ira Ambrose and infant daughter, 168 York St.

Richard Tucker, Metropolitan Opera tenor, left New York City by plane Tuesday night for Israel to give solo performances with the Israel Philharmonic.

Fausto Cleva, Metropolitan Opera conductor, accompanied Tucker and will conduct the orchestra for Tucker's five engagements in Tel Aviv, Jerusalem and Haifa. Tucker, an ordained cantor, also will sing at religious services in Israel.

Airman John E. Eyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Eyer, R. 1, has been reassigned to Amarillo AFB, Tex., for technical training as a United States Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist. He enlisted in the Air Force a short time ago, and completed his initial basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex. He is a former student at Gettysburg High School.
